American Underground

World Premiere & New Play Award Winner

By BRENT ASKARI Directed by JULIANNE BOYD

In the not-so-distant future, an interracial couple enjoys a visit from their son when a young Muslim woman arrives at their back door. She's looking for safe passage via a new Underground Railroad as Muslims are being detained and imprisoned. Suddenly, a government official knocks on their door, wreaking havoc on the family. They must decide how much to risk to save an innocent woman. This riveting thriller takes us inside a stark vision of an unapologetic America.
