Winter Catalog 2012

ADULT LEARNING AT ITS BEST
WHAT IS OLLI AT BCC? The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Berkshire Community College (OLLI at BCC) is a membership-led organization committed to the idea that learning is a lifelong, multifaceted experience. It offers courses, lectures, trips and special events year-round. Courses are given in Fall, Winter, Spring and Summer semesters.

WHAT ARE THE COSTS? The tax-deductible annual membership fee is $50 per person. In addition, course fees per semester are $40 for one course, $80 for 2 to 3 courses and $100 for unlimited courses. The Distinguished Speaker Series is $10 per lecture for members. The cost for Special Events varies according to the event. Scholarships are available.

WHAT IS A FLEX PASS? For those members who take extended trips or live away from the Berkshires part of the year, OLLI offers a convenient FLEX PASS. Pay $40 to access up to 6 class sessions from the course offerings. Restrictions are noted on the course registration page.

ARE THERE ANY SPECIAL DISCOUNTS TO MEMBERS? OLLI has 31 Cultural Partners that offer programming support and, in many cases, discounts to our members. Visit www.BerkshireOLLI.org for details.

HOW DO I REGISTER? Complete the OLLI registration form and mail it with your check or credit card information to: OLLI at BCC, 1350 West Street, Pittsfield, MA 01201-5786. For further information, call the OLLI Office at 413.236.2190. Our fax number is 413.443.1797.

TUESDAYS AT THE MOVIES: Billy Wilder

Billy Wilder (1906–2002), a refugee from Hitler’s occupied Vienna, arrived here without knowing a word of English and became a legendary figure in the world of 20th century American film. He left behind an incredible legacy that supremely captured unique American culture. We will view some of those films and discuss that legacy.

Howard Arkans, M.D., Stanford Medical School; a keen interest in film since his grandmother took him to see The Jazz Singer (remake) in 1952; leader of Tuesdays at the Movies the past five winters; immediate past president of OLLI at BCC.

WINSTON CHURCHILL: Greatest Man of the Twentieth Century?

This course will examine the extraordinary life of Winston Churchill. He fought the last major horse cavalry charge of the British army; was an escaped POW in the Boer War; was elected to Parliament at age 25; spent more than 50 years as a member of Parliament; established the borders of modern Iraq; was a friend of Lawrence of Arabia; won the Nobel Prize in literature; and was British Prime Minister twice. Oh yes—and saved Western civilization.

William Vogt, A.B., Georgetown University; retired managing director, J.P. Morgan Chase & Co.; Trustee of Hancock Shaker Village; Treasurer of Camphill Village, Copake, NY; Chairman of Camphill Ghent, an elder community in Columbia County; enjoys reading history and biography.

THROUGH THE EYES OF CHILDREN: Portrayals of Childhood in Adult Short Fiction

At the beginning of the 20th century, a growing fascination with childhood inspired novelists and short story writers to create vivid and compelling portrayals of children. This trend continued, and today’s authors often employ child narrators with great success. What are the challenges of such a task, and what do these stories ask of us? How are the elements of short fiction—theme, style, narration, setting, characterization, plot—affect ed by child narrators or child-centered stories? We will explore answers to these questions and examine the philosophical questions that arise. Authors will include Grace Stone Coates, Katherine Mansfield, Katherine Anne Porter, Elizabeth Bishop, Ray Bradbury, Alice Munro and others.

Alexandra Tinari, M.F.A., Poetry, University of Montana; editor, tutor, writing coach; offers writing workshops for adults in Berkshire County; taught at the University of Montana and the Pingree School; served as poet-in-residence at five public schools; published poet and writer.

Suggested Reading: Please read How Fiction Works by James Wood for the first class. A reading packet will be distributed.
SHOWCASING THE BERKSHIRES  W102

Wednesdays
12:30 – 2:00
Lenox Library
January 18, 25
February 1, 8, 15
Note later start date

Five sessions

Look at what and how we grow, create, purchase, conserve and consume, with a focus on inspiring Berkshire entrepreneurial and nonprofit ventures that enrich and instruct our lives—from the food we eat to the clothes we wear to the candles that light up our lives.

JANUARY 18 • Two Brothers, One Delicious Idea – Guido’s Fresh Marketplace is in the business of bringing exceptional fresh robust produce to Western Massachusetts. It harmoniously blends classic marketplace atmosphere with up-to-the-minute goods and services and is ever aware of the latest trends and developments in green technology. Presented by the Guido’s team.

JANUARY 25 • Alchemist – A used-clothing textile artist is making a life from recycling used clothing into blankets, rugs, clothing and accessories. She has been teaching reuse, consumption sensitivity and like-minded collaboration by example since 1987. Presented by Crispina ffrench, co-founder of Alchemy Initiative.

FEBRUARY 1 • Berkshire Grown – This organization supports and promotes locally based agriculture as a vital part of a healthy Berkshire community, economy and landscape. It envisions a community where healthy farms define the open landscape, where a wide diversity of fresh seasonal food and flowers is readily available, and where we celebrate our agricultural bounty by buying from our neighboring family farms and savoring their distinctive Berkshire harvest. Presented by Barbara Zheutlin, Executive Director.

FEBRUARY 8 • Rawson Brook Farm – The farm has been producing Monterey Chèvre, a fresh farmstead goat cheese, since 1983. It is an example of a business created from scratch on a marginal piece of originally wooded Berkshire land. Dedicated to local agriculture, 85% of the farm’s 500-lb. weekly production of goat cheese is sold in the Berkshires. Presented by Susan Sellew, owner.

FEBRUARY 15 • Like Nothing You Ever Tasted Before! – SoCo (South County) Creamery has emerged as a wholesale ice cream producer from its origins as a mom-and-pop-style scoop shop. A micro-creamery, it produces ultra-premium ice cream, sorbet and gelato and is now bringing its award-winning product to restaurants, gourmet markets and hotels within a 200-mile radius. Presented by Daniel Mazursky, co-owner and tasting savant.

THE SHORT FICTION OF FRANZ KAFKA: A Seminar  W103

Wednesdays
2:15 – 4:00
Lenox Library
February 8, 15, 22, 29
Note later start date

Four sessions

Franz Kafka stands among the giants of early 20th century literary modernism. In his brief writing career from 1900 to his death in 1924, he wrote some of the most original, influential and psychologically penetrating stories and novels to appear in the past century. So much have his stories and novels become an integral part of our own culture that we commonly use the term “Kafkaesque” to denote the sense of anxiety, alienation and guilt that lies at the heart of his vision and literary modernism. This seminar looks at some of his key stories. REGISTRATION IS LIMITED TO 15.

FEBRUARY 8 • Introduction to Kafka and his world. Please read “Before the Law” and “The Judgment” before the first class.

FEBRUARY 15 • “The Metamorphosis”
FEBRUARY 22 • “In the Penal Colony” and “A Country Doctor”
FEBRUARY 29 • “A Hunger Artist” and “The Burrow.” Summing up.

David Fine, Ph.D., UCLA; Professor Emeritus, California State University; taught American Literature, American Studies and American Literature and Films; Fulbright lecturer at Waikato University, New Zealand; visiting professor at University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada; author of several books, book reviews and articles; literary columnist.

Suggested Reading: Paperback collections of Kafka’s stories are readily available in bookstores. One choice is Franz Kafka: The Complete Stories, Nahum Glatzer (ed.) with forward by John Updike. With the exception of “The Burrow,” the stories can be found online at www.Kafka-online.info.
TODAY’S HEADLINES

This course provides you with an opportunity to voice your opinions on national and international issues. Serving as a guide and provocateur, the moderator will explore selected topics drawn from a variety of newspapers and the Internet. Lively discussion is the centerpiece of this course.

David Orenstein, Moderator, J.D., Pace University School of Law; practicing CPA and attorney; Treasurer, Berkshire Brigades; former treasurer: Construct, Inc. and Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic; has led Today’s Headlines for twelve years.

EUROPEAN ART HISTORY

Continuing to explore the evolution of European art history with DVD lectures by Professor William Kloss of The Smithsonian Associates, this series will focus principally on the Late Renaissance, the rise of the Impressionists and modernist painting, including Kandinsky and Picasso. Participants will be guided through the sessions by the moderator, who will provide background, historical timeline perspective and lead class discussions.

Jerome Connoy, Moderator, MBA, New York University; other degrees from the University of Minnesota and Princeton University; Director/Owner of The Lenox Gallery of Fine Art, Lenox; career positions in industry and finance; began his art gallery work in 1994.

WRITING OUR STORIES: Memoir and Short Story Writing

Maybe you are bursting with ideas for memoirs or short stories but do not know how to get started. Maybe you need help finishing stories you have begun or making them better. This course will give you the opportunity to write and to receive critical, sympathetic attention aimed at helping you write better. You will write a 1,000-to-2,000-word piece each week; listen to and critique fellow students’ work; and see how writers as diverse as Chekhov, Frank McCourt, Jim Bouton, Edith Wharton and Jhumpa Lahiri have told stories that captivate readers.

REGISTRATION IS LIMITED TO 8. Selection is by lottery. See page 6 for lottery directions.

If you are selected by the lottery, please submit a brief (maximum one to two pages) writing sample directly to Efrem Sigel at efrem.sigel@gmail.com.

Efrem Sigel, author of two novels and more than 20 short stories and essays in such periodicals as Antioch Review, The Journal, Jerusalem Post, Nimrod and Xavier Review; his most recent novel, The Disappearance, is set in Western Massachusetts and received 3½ stars from People magazine.

Suggested Reading: Frank McCourt, Angela’s Ashes; Jhumpa Lahiri, Interpreter of Maladies; The Collected Short Stories of Anton Chekhov Volume I (Halcyon Classics, available only as e-book).

SNOW DAY CLASS CANCELLATIONS

OLLI classes are cancelled if BCC is closed because of inclement weather. That decision is made prior to 6 a.m. Go to www.berkshirecc.edu for up-to-date information or listen to local radio and TV stations.
FRONTIERS OF MEDICINE

JANUARY 20 & 27 • Electronic Medical Records – Electronic medical records are the new trend in medicine. An expert in the field will explain how you enter data, address the problems of privacy and confidentiality, and show how this revolution could improve health care and keep costs down.
  Margaret Hassett, M.S.; Registered Nurse; independent consultant in nursing informatics.

FEBRUARY 3 & 10 • Minimally Invasive Surgery – Minimally invasive surgery is a rapidly growing field. Smaller incisions result in less pain, shorter hospital stays and quicker recoveries. Our speaker will discuss new developments in this field, how procedures are performed and what the future holds in surgery.
  Jacqueline Wu, M.D. in General Surgery, University of Massachusetts Medical School; Department of Surgery, Berkshire Medical Center.

FEBRUARY 17 • CT, MRI, PET, Stealth – What are they and how do they work? Newer imaging techniques are developing rapidly and are changing the way medicine is practiced. Learn what these procedures are and how they are used. Newer advances will also be noted.
  David Winger, M.D., SUNY Upstate Medical University, Syracuse, NY; Department of Radiology, Berkshire Medical Center.

FEBRUARY 24 • Neurosurgery – This lecture will explore advances in neurosurgery, including deep brain stimulation.
  Laszlo Tamas, M.D., McGill University, Montreal, Canada; Medical Director of Neurological Surgery, Berkshire Medical Center.

SCIENCE CONVERSATIONS: Behind the Headlines

Join us to discuss science news appearing in the Tuesday “Science Times” section of The New York Times, plus magazines and journals. Led by a rotating panel of scientists and engineers of varying backgrounds, a vigorous give-and-take will be encouraged. Suggestions of topics welcomed.
